

"Articulate Integrity very much lives up to its name. As a Board member of the East Bay SPCA I worked with Kerry Enright and her team and they did an outstanding job in assisting us with important decisions. I give Articulate Integrity my highest recommendation."

"I have worked with Kerry in several contexts; from serving on a board for which she was the E.D., to working shoulder-to-shoulder on a number of intricate projects. Having the word, "Integrity," in the title of her company could not be more appropriate: no one in my experience exemplifies working with integrity than does Kerry. Furthermore, Kerry exudes a calm energy that brings out the best in people; and her creativity - whether focused on process or product - is remarkably nuanced. Her management style is one that inspires and motivates in lieu of command; and tends to yield results as close to vision as humanly possible...sometimes even more."

Kile Ozier
Executive Producer/Client & Colleague Amnesty International

"I worked closely with Kerry when she was Executive Director of the National AIDS Memorial Grove through the earliest days of inception until the project was well under way. I served on the Board of Directors and worked closely with Kerry in the area of development and strategic planning. Kerry had an extraordinary talent for seeing the big picture and implementing a strategy to get the job done. Given the size of her staff at the time and the challenges of building a new organization, Kerry did an exceptional job."

Former Board Member, Tides Center, National AIDS Memorial/CEO G2 Insurance Corporation

"Over the past three years, Articulate Integrity supported Timothy Murphy School with both structural redesign and board development. Timothy Murphy School is a not-for-profit non-public school, serving extremely troubled children and youth. The success of this undertaking depended on professionalism and transparency that were modeled by Ms. Enright and her staff. Articulate Integrity's approach was one of partnership and honest communication, which set the tone for a successful transformation that will benefit our school for years to come. Kerry Enright truly believes in the integrity of the relationship with the partner to whom she provides consultation."

Daniel Gallagher, M.Ed.
President, Timothy Murphy School & Chief Operating Officer, St. Vincent's School for Boys

"It is an honor to officially endorse Kerry Enright. Her professionalism, her attention to detail and her embodiment of what it means to have integrity has served as an inspiration to me. Without Kerry's direct advocacy and professional support, my professional life would be far inferior today. I wholeheartedly recommend Kerry's professional services to any interested parties!"

"Kerry was instrumental in bringing Out of Site along to its next level of maturity. She supported the growth of both Board and staff, and me too, which, as a Founder, was hard to do! I am still basking in the glow knowing the strength of the organization I am leaving."

Beth Rubenstein
Founder, Former Executive Director, Out of Site aka Youth Art Exchange

"Kerry brought so much knowledge and value to the table that I felt like our whole board received an education. She kept us on track, and gave us options to stay within our budget. Most important for our tight-knit field, she helped build goodwill. I even had people stop me to comment what a breath of fresh air Kerry's professionalism was. I would hire her again in a heartbeat!"

Tom Bruein
Nonprofit Board President/Client; President, Sharp Content

"Our Board hired Kerry as a consultant to lead our executive search process, and we were fortunate that she later accepted our invitation to serve as Streetside Stories' Interim Executive Director. The Board and staff give Kerry our highest recommendation. She worked closely with our transition committee to train us in the elements of a successful search, managing to simultaneously keep our stress level down and expectations high. As Interim ED, Kerry was able to implement important infrastructure changes while guiding the organization through the transition. Her recruiting skills were exceptional, yielding a candidate pool of outstanding caliber and fit. Kerry was the consummate consultant, working efficiently and effectively on our behalf to deliver a smooth Executive Director transition."
